Tables of Contents (1978-1983)

Volume 1/Number 1

Robert B. Fransecky	Introducing Television's Children
George Comstock	The Impact of Television on American Institutions
Eliot A. Daley	Introducing the People who Shape our Children's Television Environment: Some Dilemmas and Directions

Volume 1/Number 2

Editors	Toward a Fuller Definition of Children's Television
Dorothy G. Singer	The Relationship of Television to Imagination in Childhood
Rose Ann Anschuetz	An Advertising Agency's Point of View on Children and Television
Russell Karp	Cable Can Provide a Better Alternative for Television's Children
	Who's Who on the National Council for Children and Television

Volume 1/Number 3

Quarterly Meeting Notes	Children and their Television Environment: Visions for Tomorrow, Forces of Today
Joel Chaseman	Will More Channels Mean Better Choices?
Chuck Jones	The Duck-billed Platitude, Or Never Talk Down to Anyone, He May be Standing in a Hole

Volume 2/Number 1 — THE STATE OF THE CHILD (Out of print)

Maria P. Robbins	Tuning in on America: Notes of a TV Fan
Rajah, Kimberly, Debbie and Alexander	Kids Talk About Television
Foundation for Child Development	National Survey of Children
Van Dyck, Robbins, Gordon and Hannibal	Profiles of Children in the United States
Orville G. Brim, Jr.	Societal Influences on Children and New Actors in the Field
Kenneth Keniston	All Our Children: The American Family Under Pressure
Marian Wright Edelman	Toward Policies for Children and an Agenda for the Media
George Comstock	Updating the Classics: A Basic Bookshelf on Children and Television
Quarterly Meeting Notes	Initiatives for Children and Television: An Outline for Study and Action

Volume 2/Number 2 — THE CHANGING BROADCAST INDUSTRY

Maria P. Robbins	A Conversation with Danny Wilson
Joan Ganz Cooney	The Promise of Television's Second Generation
Bob Keeshan	Three Cheers for Parents (When They're Parents)
Joel Chaseman	The Challenges of the Eighties
Fred Silverman	The Future of Network Programming
George Comstock	Taking Account: Basic Books about the TV Business
Quarterly Meeting Notes	The State of the Child in a Hostile Environment

Volume 2/Number 3 — TELEVISION AND LEARNING

Maria P. Robbins	A Conversation with Terry Herndon
Les Brown	The Future of Children's Television
Clare Lynch O'Brien	Producing Children's Television in India
Maria P. Robbins	Foxfire Video: A Hands-on Approach
Rosemary Lee Potter	TV and my Classroom: An Evolutionary Tale
Dorothy Singer	Learning about TV in the Classroom
Henry Cauthen	The Story of South Carolina Educational Television: A Responsive Communications System
Jon Cecil	Instructional Television: A National Learning Resource
	Television for Learning: A Catalog of Reading Programs and Teacher's Guides
George Comstock	A Critical Look at Television and Learning: A Review of Sesame Street Revisited
Quarterly Meeting Notes	Children in Television's Changing Marketplace

Volume 2/Number 4
Volume 3/Number 1 — FAMILIES AND TELEVISION

Editors	A Conversation with Marian Wright Edelman
	FAMILIES AND TELEVISION
Council Members and Others	A Sampler of Family Stories about Television
Maria P. Robbins	Television Awareness/The Viewer's Guide for Family and Community: A Review
Dorothy Cohen and Erich Fromm	Excerpts from Television Awareness Training
Kate Moody	Regulating Television at Home
Paul Borgman	Confessions of a TV-Generation Parent
George Comstock	What Children Watch Does Affect How They Act
	NEW VIDEO TECHNOLOGIES
Robert Bezilla	Children, Computers, Microprocessors and New Uses of Video
Children's Television International	Proposed: A Satellite/Cable Educational Network for Children
	PROPOSED LEGISLATION AND REGULATION
George Comstock	The Federal Policy Puzzle
Eliot A. Daley	Why Children's TV Isn't Better, and How it Could Be
Quarterly Symposium Notes	Federal Policies for Children in Their New Video Environment
	Who's Who on the National Council for Children and Television

Volume 3/Number 2 — CRITICAL TELEVISION VIEWING
(Out of print)

Editors — A Conversation with Gerald Levin
Nicholas B. Van Dyck — Children, Families and New Video/Computer Technologies: An NCCT Symposium Report
Maria and Ken Robbins — Project Blueberry: Reading, Writing and Video
Horace Newcomb — Television as Popular Culture: Toward a Critically Based Curriculum
James F. Parsley, Jr. — In Support of the Teaching of Critical Thinking and Critical Televiewing in Schools
Frank B. Withrow — Objectives for Critical Television Viewing Skills Curricula
Charles R. Corder-Bolz — Critical Television Viewing Skills for Elementary Schools
Debbi Wasserman Bilowit & Lynne Brenner Ganek — Critical Television Viewing Skills for Middle Grades
Beth Hughes Hall — Critical Television Viewing Skills for High School Students
Donis Dondis — Critical Television Viewing Skills for Adults
Walter Cronkite — Closing the Gap Between Information and Understanding
John M. Culkin — Literacy for the TV Child: A Tale of Two Media
Emma Cohn — Books, Video, and Electronic Data Bases at your Neighborhood Library
John Y. Cole — Living Books and Television: The Library of Congress/CBS 'Read More About It' Project
George Comstock — Television in Fugitive Print
Resource List for Schools and Libraries

Volume 3/Number 3 — CHILDHOOD'S PROMISES
From the Editor — A Word About this Issue
Orville G. Brim, Jr. — In Conversation
Ashley Montagu — Childhood's Promises
Basil Cox — Television and the Inner Drama of Young Children
Ian Alger — A Review of The Television Experiences: What Children See
George Comstock — Television in America: A Conversation with Myself
Nicholas B. Van Dyck — Learning With Television and Learning about Television: An NCCT Symposium Report
John P. Murray — Television and Children's Behavior: Past Fears, Present Worries, Future Hopes
Bibliography on Television and Children's Behavior

Volume 4/Number 1 — CHILDREN IN TELEVISION'S GLOBAL VILLAGE
From the Editor — The United States as Neighbor in Television's Global Village
A Word About this Issue
NCCT Projects in 1981
Maria P. Robbinis — A Conversation with William P. Thompson
John Culkin — Doing the Truth
Cecily Truett — Television and Children: A Global View
Clare Lynch O'Brien — The Big Blue Marble Story
George Comstock — The Empirical Eye Abroad
Cecilia von Feilitzen — Developing and Evaluating Prosocial Television Programming: A Swedish Perspective
John P. Murray — Children and the Structures of Television in Industrialized Nations
J.J. Boddewyn — Advertising to Children: An International Survey
Chin-chuan Lee — Media Imperialism: A Third World Perspective
Roderic Gorney — Television for the Human Future

Volume 4/Number 2 — NEW DIRECTIONS
John M. Culkin — Marshall McLuhan: In Memoriam
From the Editor — A Word About This Issue
Maria P. Robbins — A Conversation with Vivian Horner
Robert Bezilla — Unconventional Answers to Conventional Questions About Children and Television
Nicholas P. Miller — Children's Television: The Next Round
Nicholas Zill and James L. Peterson — Television Viewing in the United States and Children's Intellectual, Social and Emotional Development
Emma Cohn — France Wants Active Young Televiewers
Tina Peel, Keona Schuable, and Edward L. Palmer — A Checklist of Seven Common Production Mistakes
George Comstock — The Mass Audience Disassembled
Nicholas B. Van Dyck — Children in Television's Global Village: NCCT Symposium Notes

Volume 4/Number 3 — STRATEGIES FOR COOPERATION
From the Editors — A Word About this Issue
Cooperative Strategies for Children and Television: An NCCT Workshop Report
Maria P. Robbins — In Conversation with John Culkin
Judith Glickson and Alan R. Stephenson — The Making of A Journey of Conscience
Miriam Morton — Television for Young Viewers in the USSR
Bernice Cole — A Gold Mine for Producers
Lois J. Baron — Media and Play: The Effect of Television on the Play and Development of Young Children
George Comstock — More is More: A Review of John Murray's Television and Youth
Nicholas Van Dyck and A. Victoria Hannah — Children and Families in the US: Fact Sheets and Attitude Surveys

Volume 5/Number 4 — HOW CHILDREN SEE TV
Nicholas B. Van Dyck — Announcing National Children and Television Week
Dorothy Singer — In Conversation

Catherine Egan and John Egan	Sitcoms and the American Dream
	AN NCCT WORKSHOP REPORT
Theodore Gill	Difference Makes the Difference
Alan Wurtzel	From Piaget to Prime Time
Dorothy Singer	The Research Connection
Norton Wright	Positive Role Modeling on TV
Rosemary Lee Potter	What Kids Say About TV and How Prime Time Viewing Can Help Them in Schools

Volume 4/Number 4	RESEARCH AND TV PROGRAMS
Volume 5/Number 1	(Out of print)
From the Editors	A Word About this Issue
Urie Bronfenbrenner	New Images of Children, Families and America
Steven H. Chaffee and Jerome L. Singer	A Preview of Papers Prepared for Television and Behavior: Ten Years of Scientific Progress and Implications for the Eighties
J. Ronald Milavsky	A Response to the Preview from a Network Social Scientist
Marvin Mord	In Conversation
George Comstock	Television Studies: A Widening Perspective
Miriam Morton	Television and Aesthetic Education of Children: An Interview with Valdimir A. Razumnyi
	The Third Parent
William King	Taking A Look at Television
	Who's Who on the National Council for Children and Television

Volume 5/Number 2	STRENGTHENING FAMILIES
From the Editors	Programming for a 91% Share
Marian Wright Edelman	An Open Letter to the Television Industry
John H. Gagnon and Elizabeth Roberts	Men vs. Fathers
Henry Winkler	In Conversation
Herbert Anderson	The Purpose of Families
Gerald Levin	Children and Families: A Special Audience for Cable
Robert Keeshan	Scapegoat: No; Opportunities, Yes
James Morrow	But Then There Was Maverick: Some Crotchety Thoughts on Television Research
George Comstock	The Light at the End of the Tunnel

Volume 5/Number 3	HOW TV CAN HELP STUDENTS
From the Editors	A Word About the NCCT
Lucy Johnson	In Conversation
George Comstock	Education and Television: The Persistent Challenge
David England	Television and the Classroom: A Critical View and Six Proposals
	A WORKSHOP IN PRINT
Rosemary Lee Potter	Television and Teaching: The Emerging Partnership

Linda Kahn	Television in Subject Areas: Field-Tested Methods for Classroom Use
Sharyn Neuwirth	Using Television to Teach Story Comprehension: One Teacher's Experience
John Murray and Barbara Lonnberg	Television and Your Child: What Parents Can Do
Miriam Morton	The Incredible Yet Obvious: Science for Young Viewers in the USSR
Debra Lieberman	Multicultural Children's Television: Federally Funded Programming in the Commercial Marketplace
Workshop Participants	Children, Families and Prime Time Television: Ideas for Creators and Programmers from Creators and Programmers
Bob Samples	Beyond the Search for a Scapegoat
Robert S. Singer	Childhood, Aggression and Television
George Comstock	The Teenage Audience: Looking for Answers

Volume 6/Number 1	NATIONAL CHILDREN AND TELEVISION WEEK
From the Editor	Visions
Fred Rogers	Three Cheers
Robert Keeshan	Family: Another Name for America
Christopher Finch	Muppets: Past, Present and Future
A. Victoria Hannah	Catherine Wyler In Conversation
National Organizations	Some Hopes for National Children and Television Week
Carla Martin	What's On TV for Children, Teens and Families
Robert Abelman	The ABC's of TV Literacy
George Comstock	Zworykin's Time Machine

Volume 6/Number 2
From the Editor	It's Been Quite a Year
	IMAGES OF CHILDREN: AN NCCT SEMINAR REPORT
David Elkind	Let Children Be Children
Gary David Goldberg	A Producer Responds
Virginia Carter	The Making of a Sitcom
Photo Essay	National Children and Television Week in Review
	CABLE TELEVISION FOR CHILDREN
Roger Fransecky	Give or Take
Cy Schneider	Rethinking Violence on TV
Kate Moody	Nickelodeon — Entertainment with Values for Children
James P. Jimirro	The Disney Channel — Active Enrichment for Children
George Comstock	More Than Style

Volume 6/Number 3

Nicholas B. Van Dyck	Families and Television
Victoria Hannah Socha	Al Burton In Conversation
Marty Klein	Teens, Sexuality and Prime Time Entertainment: A Report on the 1983 NCCT Spring Weekend
Robert Abelman	A Tale of Two Heroes
John Murray	Mickey Mouse: A Brief Psychohistory
Marieli Rowe	How TV Can Help Students: An NCCT Teachers' Workshop Report
George Comstock	Under Clinical Scrutiny: A review of The Child and Television Drama: The Psychosocial Impact of Cumulative Viewing from the Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry
Faye Wattleton	Truth or Consequences
Polly Brown	Children with Children: A Photo Essay
Mark Gerzon	Let's Have Some New Heroes: Thoughts on Sexuality and Masculinity
Shelley Kessler	Teens Talk About Sexuality, Sex and Television
Mary S. Calderone	A Review of Raising a Child Conservatively in a Sexually Permissive World
George Comstock	Sex and Violence: Connections Between Fantasy and Reality

Volume 6/Number 4

From the Editors	Acknowledgements and Thanks
	TELEVISION, TEENS AND SEXUALITY
Joanna Lee	Why Television, Teens and Sexuality?
Elizabeth Roberts	Teens, Sexuality and Sex: Our Mixed Messages
Sol Gordon	Straight Talk: Teenage Sex is a Health Hazard

Back issues may be ordered from NCFT, 20 Nassau St., Suite 200, Princeton, NJ 08542.

Volume 1/Number 1 through Volume 7/Number 4	$5.00 per issue prepaid
Volume 8/Number 1 through Volume 8/Number 4	$6.00 per issue prepaid
Complete sets of available back issues	$85.00 plus postage